

Overview

Department of Law of Green University of Bangladesh (GUB) set forth its journey in the year of 2003. It aspires to accomplish excellence in educating students, nurturing legal scholarship, serving community and ultimately fostering justice. The Department is pledged to ensure comprehensive learning environment both in and outside of classroom with the goal of rendering excellent first-hand academic knowledge and skills crucial to embark on the practice of law and legal research. GUB Law offers 2 (two) degree programmes i.e., Bachelor of Laws with Honours -LL B (Hons) and Master of Laws (LL M). The objective of the LL B (Hons.) programme is to produce qualified law graduates for all job opportunities in the socio-legal fields of Bangladesh and abroad. The LL M programme targets at offering the law graduates a high-profile up-to-date curriculum concentrating on research and learning in different specialized areas of domestic and international law.

Though it started its journey with few enrolled students, but with the course of time, student enrolment increased substantially and at present there are more than 300 students pursuing undergraduate and post graduate studies. The department has 08 (Eight) full time faculties with 03 (three) Ph.D. holders. In Addition, Professor Dr. Stephen Hobe, Director Institute of Air and Space Law, University of Cologne, Germany is working here as Honorary Professor. For the practical teaching-learning, lawyers and judges are employed as part-time faculty from bar and bench of Supreme Court and sub-ordinate Courts of Bangladesh. Most of the faculty members of department of law have membership in Bangladesh Bar Council, different Bar Association including Supreme Court Bar Association. At present, the department has one Associate Professor, four Assistant Professors, two senior lecturers and one lecturer.

We are proud to announce that the Law department has established the Centre for Air and Space Law, the country's first and only centre for research and practical education on Air and Space law. It arranged country's first and second international conference on space law. It has signed MoU with Institute of Air and Space Law, University of Cologne, Germany.

The Dept. of Law established Moot Court Society in 2013 with a view that students may acquire practical knowledge on customary behaviors of lawyers in court-room and other associated professional ethics that is expected of a lawyer of good standing. To foster legal research, the department established 'Research Cell' in 2015. The cell conducts departmental research activities and advice on research strategies, initiatives and innovation. The cell organized different seminars, symposiums and workshops individually or in collaboration with different organizations like Bangladesh Mahila Parishad, Ain O Salish Kendro, and Bangladesh Women Lawyers Association etc. The cell publishes 'Law Bulletin' in each trimester and contributes by writing articles in Green University Review of Social Science. The department offers special aid for the preparation of Bangladesh Judicial Service, Bangladesh Bar Council and other competitive examinations by arranging special classes, model tests, workshops and mock viva.

To ensure quality education, Ministry of Education with the assistance of World Bank has undertaken a 'Higher Education Enhancement Project (HEQEP)' supervised by University Grants Commission (UGC). As per guideline of UGC for implementing Self-Assessment (SA) process, the 'Department of Law' has already arranged a number of workshops, seminars and training programs for capacity building by inviting resource persons from different institutions. The main purpose of SA is to review the existing processes being practiced and to take up strategic plans for improvement of the program. We are delighted to share that as per report of the External (Foreign) Peer Review Team, Law department placed VERY GOOD position.

Apart from regular academic duties, Department of Law conducted numerous activities including Court visit, Parliament visit, Administrative Appellate Tribunal Visit, seminars, conferences, study tours, social activities etc. GUB Law is placed 5th position among all law departments of private universities of Bangladesh and we do strongly believe that through its relentless efforts, GUB Law is going to be part of the glorious list of top law schools of Bangladesh in no time.
